Rev. W. P. Claggett,

Texas Presbyterian University,

5188 Cates Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

Dear Sir:

In the Faculty of Arts of the University of Toronto there are four colleges in one of which every undergraduate in Arts must register. These colleges are: University College, which is the State College, Victoria the Methodist, Trinity the Anglican, and St. Michael's the Roman Catholic. They all teach the same subjects, that is, the languages and ethics. Without paying an additional fee their students come to the University and get all the other work: History, Mathematics, Economics and the Sciences. Every student is examined by the University of Toronto and the degree is given by the University of Toronto. The denominational colleges appoint their own professors and pay them. The Board of Governors of the University appoint and pay professors in University College. The standards for the curriculum are ste by the Faculty of Arts on which there is joint representation from all the colleges in addition to the university subjects.

I am sending you a copy of the University Act, which I hope will make clear what I have just written.

Yours sincerely,

President.
